Currently, Stephanie Johnson works for the NC Division of Services for the Deaf and the Hard of Hearing as the Manager of the Wilson Regional Center. During the nine years prior to assuming her current position, she worked for the same agency as the Deaf-Blind Specialist. Stephanie holds the Comprehensive Skills Certificate from the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf and interpreter licensure from the NC Interpreters and Transliteration Licensure Board. Stephanie received her M.A. degree from Louisiana State University in 1994 and a B.S. degree in Deaf Education from the University of NC at Greensboro in December, 1979.

At 10 years of age, Stephanie became interested in sign language and working with the deaf through an interpreted ministry of her church in Salisbury, NC. Upon graduation from UNC-G, she began working at Gardner-Webb University as an interpreter. There she met her husband, Daniel Johnson. Daniel and Stephanie were married over 29 years when Daniel passed away after a lengthy illness in 2011. They have 3 children between the ages of 18-26. Stephanie serves as an interpreter in her church.
